Drama Skit Review

By: Manu Larson

Fourth period Drama class is working on a play called “Umbrella”. “Umbrella” is based on the story of Cinderella. The Drama class tweaked the story to make it fit the theme of the week, which is “Masquerade”. One of the changes is that the party is a masquerade ball, so when Umbrella loses her slipper, the prince cannot recognize her. Below is an interview with an actress from the skit:

Do you think our skit has a good plot?

Yes.

Do you think we could have come up with a better skit?

Not really.

Do you think we could change anything?

No.

Do you think our audience will be pleased with our performance?

Probably, I think there will be a lot of laughs.

Masquerade Party

By: Lela Broughton

There was once a huge murder mystery masquerade party. In this game, the people attending the party had to figure out who killed the camp director and what they used to kill her. The attendees and suspects are Anthony, Emily, Kelly, Marion, Mike, and Owen. The weapons that could be used are poison, a four square ball, a jump rope, and a sky-whalers harpoon.

The party-goers played for about an hour, until Emily said that she knew who killed the camp director. She stated that it was Mike with the poison. So Emily asked the host if she was correct and the host says yes. Everyone had a great time and they all went home.
The End.
