Game Review: Gaga V. Four-Square

Gaga is better than four-square because, as one camper states: “there are more people & it is harder to get out so you can last longer”. Furthermore, another reported that it is “a lot more active than four-square & you can actually win.” The evidence to support these statements is this survey between Gaga ball & four square.

Short Story

The Four Counselor Mermaids

Once upon a time there were four counselor friends. Their names were Kanye, Megan, River and Joel. They put the campers to bed and went out for a night swim and saw Corrine. "Oh hi Corrine", said Kanye.

"Oh hi guys, I was just washing my clothes", said Corrine.

12 hours later...

Guys do you know where Megan is? She was with us when we saw Corrine. "Oh no!" screamed Joel.

Megan was floating in the pool! All of them: River, Joel and Kanye turned into Mermaids. They dived in and saved Megan. "Corrine pushed me!", said Megan.

Two months later Megan is ok, and she went over to Corrine's house, where Corrine apologized for pushing Megan.

The End.

Embarrassing Moments

Bart - When I was doing a cabin skit I face planted.

Marion - When I was in Kindergarten I was playing tag and my hair was in my face. I ran into a metal pole and cut my eye and when I came back from the hospital I had to wear an eye patch to my dance performance.

Kanye -I was in the car sleeping & I woke up needing to go poop so my friends gave me a Cheese-It box to poop in so I took off my pants about to poop & then my friend told me there was a place to pull over, so I pulled up my pants & ran to a bush & started to poop with people staring at me. I turned around & there was a maintenance building where people are really rich.

Poem

Rain drenches our hair
And runs in rivulets
Down our smiling faces

The sky lights up as bright as our spirits, and the sky
Screams louder than our song.

We sing and
We laugh with old friends
And new

And some of us
Just some
Learn to dance again
